

Hiawatha Honor School

Coordinators: Ms. Dianne Reese and Mrs. Laura Fox

The Suffolk County Reading Council has recognized Hiawatha Elementary School for its achievements in the area of literacy. The gold and blue banners which are proudly displayed in our lobby have been awarded to Hiawatha Elementary for meeting specific criteria that demonstrate our commitment to literacy development through ongoing activities and events. Hiawatha has been recognized as an Honor School by the Suffolk County Reading Council for the past 21 years! The Honor School Award is a true reflection of Hiawatha's commitment to developing a strong foundation and appreciation of literacy through the grades.
