Thank you to all students that auditioned! This year was a tough year to cast, as you were all so talented. If you did not make our show this year, please remember that next year is a whole new year and we encourage you all to come out and audition again.

Congratulations to all the students that made this year's production of Beauty and the Beast Jr. We look forward to our first meeting on Monday, 12/19. If you have any questions or concerns regarding this year's cast list, please see Ms. Fraccalvieri in Room #227 or Mrs. Woolard in #253.
